MEDICAL NOTE. The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Kenting's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially sovere one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Barthelomew's Hospital. Blace the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

UNRIVALUED TESTIMONY. Under date Sept. 8th, 1891, Mr. Hill again writes I should long since have been dead, but for your Lozenges—they are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough remedy they are.

> Crowns of people from the inundated districts up North, says the Hupao, have commenced their invasion upon Tientsin, where they expect to find relief given them. The aspect of the distressed people shows plainly that they have suffered much, and the pange of hunger are clearly visible in their faces. Many of these wretched people are selling their children in order to get the wherewithal to buy food. A man and his wife were seen the other day to be sticking a card on their child, advertising that the lad was for sale. Upon being asked why they wished to sell their child, this to ching but practical reply was elicited from the father. He said, 'I am by no means willing to sell my child, but hunger has forced me to do it. My wife and my children have been for days without food. By selling my boy I shall obtain money to get food, and my son will be taken care of and fed by those who can feed him. A bystander on hearing this was greatly touched, and gave the couple 3,000 cash to buy food and advised them not to part with their young one.

Steinitz for the final championship. Herr Porges, the second prize winner in Dresden, competed for the first time in an international tournament. But he has long been known as one of the best players in Austria. Herr Marco also played for the first time with international masters; but he, like Herr Porges, has for some years enjoyed the reputation of being a very fine player. His performance in Dresden proved that this reputation is well deserved. M. Makovetz first distinguished himself at Graz in 1890, winning first hocours in a tournament in which Herr Lasker competed. Herr Bardeleben's record, as well as M. Winawer's, is well known, and requires little comment. Both are very strong tournament experts, and both have gained honours in nearly every contest in which they have taken part. Herr Walbrodt, perhaps, is deserving of the greatest praise, for he is a mere boy, and the manner in which he has fought against masters of enormous experience is truly wonderful for one of his age. His victory is highly oreditable.
